

Todos Santos

TODOS SANTOS INN

The Todos Santos Inn is a grand old hacienda in the heart of the historic district. Built in the mid-19th century, this former home of a sugar baron has been sensitively restored as an historic village inn. Located in the heart of the town historic district, the Inn is walking distance to all the art galleries, shops and restaurants.

Accommodations: The Todos Santos Inn is elegantly appointed, furnished with antiques and steeped in charm and period detail. All guest rooms contain a queen sized bed and private bath. Offering two types of room: the terrace rooms come with a queen size bed, private bathroom and they open up onto a large shared patio area. The garden suites come with a king size bed, private bathroom, living room, air conditioning and private patio.

POSADA LA POZA

Located on the beach in Todos Santos, this hotel offers an uncompromising level of service. Featuring fine dining surrounded by traditional Mexican décor, the comfortable accommodations are decorated in vivid hues using hand painted tiles, authentic Mexican textiles and tasteful wood accents.

Accommodations: This unique seven room resort hotel is infused with warm traditional Mexican hues and fine art by Libusche.

HACIENDA TODOS SANTOS

Located on a twelve acre palm tree oasis, The Hacienda Todos Santos is inviting to all special guests with upscale-comfort, providing the sumptuous beds, private terraces or balcony, full kitchens or wet-bars. The accommodations have charm, enchanting views, a quiet atmosphere, terraces, wifi, swimming pool, daily maids.

Accommodations: Three beautifully-appointed guesthouses and four luxurious suites

HOTELITO

A contemporary and enchanting boutique style inn, situated overlooking the lush fertile palm groves towards the Mission church of the Pueblo. The combination of modern architecture together with European style, comfort and attention to detail make Hotelito an irresistible and understandable treasure.

Accommodations: Four private cottages

HOTEL CALIFORNIA

This world famous historical hotel is the best known landmark in Todos Santos. Its owners John and Debbie Stewart gave the classic old hotel an extensive renovation. John's vision gracefully combines the 100 year old beams and historic structure with his vision and passion for bold colors, colonial Mexican architecture and furnishings, art, glass and metal sculptures and exotic plants.

Accommodations: The eleven rooms are relatively small but sumptuously appointed with wildly imaginative decorations and furnishings, everything very comfortable with charming bathrooms. There is a small pool and beautiful garden area for guests to relax and enjoy. When you are ready to dine you are in for another well designed and decorated treat in the La Coronela Restaurant and Bar.

Pescadero

LA ALIANZA

La Alianza offers a fine opportunity to luxuriate in comfortable tranquility by the ocean's edge. These beautifully appointed and decorated guest quarters provide a great vacation escape. This enchanting escape comes with private intimacy in accommodations overlooking the Pacific Ocean, palm groves, mountains and the orchards and fields of El Pescadero Valley.

Accommodations: Private enclave just steps from San Pedrito beach, rooms, suites, casita and entire home rental available. Finely appointed rooms and amazing Pacific views.

RANCHO PESCADERO

An outrageous oceanfront oasis on 15 beautiful acres in Baja California Sur, Mexico that's got a new approach to what a luxury boutique hotel experience can be. The 12 oceanfront suites are downright alluring. This new hotel on San Pedrito beach has already been featured in Sunset Magazine as one of Baja's best.

Accommodations: Twelve deluxe suites. Hacienda is a private home with 5 bedrooms, 4.5 baths and a separate rental unit for larger parties. Sleeps 14 people.